The Company may require the Client to make arrangements for payment of Premium in advance of accepting instructions from the Client or may impose other requirements from time to time for the payment of Premium as the Company in its absolute discretion thinks fit.
- 6.2 The Client acknowledges that on and only on the expiry day, the Options System will automatically generate exercise instructions in respect of all open long positions which are in-the-money by or above the percentage prescribed by SEOCH from time to time and that the Client may instruct the Company to override these automatically generated exercise instructions before the System Closure on the expiry day in accordance with the Operational Clearing Procedures of SEOCH as amended from time to time.
- 6.3 In respect of the Client's short positions, in cases where the Client Contract is validly exercised (including cases pursuant to Clause 6.4), the Client shall fulfil his obligations under the relevant Client Contract by 3:15 p.m. on the Business Day following the day of exercise. In default thereof, without prejudice to other rights or remedies that the Company may have against the Client, the Company may without demand or notice cover any liability of the Client under any short positions or deal with the same in the manner deemed most appropriate by the Company. The Client agrees that the Client will be responsible for all the expenses of the Company in connection with the above and that the Company will not be liable for any loss that may thereby be incurred.
- 6.4 The Client understands and agrees that in accordance with the Options Trading Rules and Clearing Rules, SEOCH may randomly select any Options Trading Exchange Participant to exercise a Client Contract in a short open position in which case, that the Options Trading Exchange Participant shall randomly select a Client Contract from among all Client

Contracts comprised in short open positions of clients in the same option series as that Client Contract. The Client Contract so selected shall, by operation of this Agreement and the Options Trading Rules and Clearing Rules, for all purposes be treated as having been validly exercised at the time of such selection. The Company shall notify the Client of the details of such exercise as soon as possible and in any event no later than 12:00 noon on the Business Day following the day of exercise.

- 6.6 The Client hereby acknowledges that the Client shall be responsible to the Company for any losses, costs, fees and expenses (including legal costs) incurred by the Company (on an indemnity basis) in connection with the Client's failure to meet his obligations by the due date as described in this Clause 6.

7 Client Identity Rule

- 7.1 If the Client is not the ultimate person with beneficial interest in the transaction(s) and originated the transaction(s), the Client agrees to furnish the relevant Hong Kong and/or overseas regulators (including the SEHK and/or the SFC) within 2 Business Days upon receipt of the request by the Company with all the details of the client's identity who is the ultimate person with beneficial interest in the transaction(s) and any third party (if different from the Client/ultimate beneficial owner) who originated the transaction(s). The Client agrees that the Client would furnish the said details to the relevant Hong Kong and/or overseas regulators even after the termination of this Agreement.
- 7.2 If the Client effected any transaction(s) involving securities listed or traded on the SEHK or a derivative written over such securities for a collective investment scheme, discretionary account or discretionary trust, the Client shall, immediately upon the Company's request (which request shall include the relevant contact details of the Hong Kong and/or overseas regulators), provide to the Hong Kong and/or overseas regulators the identity, address and contact details of such scheme, account or trust and, if applicable, the identity, address, occupation and contact details of the person(s) who, on behalf of such scheme, account or trust, instructed the Client to effect the transaction(s).
- 7.3 If the Client effected any transaction(s) involving securities listed or traded on the SEHK or a derivative written over such securities for a collective investment scheme, discretionary account or discretionary trust, the Client shall, as soon as practicable, inform the Company when the Client's discretion to invest in respect of a particular transaction(s) or on behalf of such scheme, account or trust has been overridden. In a case where the Client's investment discretion has been overridden, the Client shall, immediately upon the Company's request (which request shall include the relevant contact details of the Hong Kong and/or overseas regulators), provide to the Hong Kong and/or overseas regulators the identity, address, occupation and contact details of the person(s) who has or have given such overriding instruction in relation to the transaction(s) or such scheme, account or trust.
- 7.4 If the Client is aware that its client is acting as an intermediary for its underlying client(s) and the Client does not know the identity, address, occupation and contact details of such underlying client(s) for whom any transaction(s) involving securities listed or traded on the SEHK or a derivative written over such securities was affected, the Client confirms that:-
- (a) the Client has arrangements in place with its client, acting as an intermediary, which would entitle the Client to obtain all the relevant information set out in Clauses 7.1 to 7.3 from such client immediately upon the Company's request or procure that such information be so obtained; and
 - (b) the Client will, upon the Company's request (which request shall include the relevant contact details of the Hong Kong and/or overseas regulators) in relation to a transaction(s), immediately request all the relevant information set out in Clauses 7.1 to 7.3 from its client on whose instructions the transaction(s) was effected, and provide that information to the Hong Kong regulators and/or overseas regulators as soon as it has received it from its client or procure that such information be so provided.
- 7.5 Whenever the Company deals with the Client, it will always be on the basis that only the Client is the Company's client, and so, if the Client acts on behalf of another person, whether or not the Client identifies him/her/it to the Company, he/she/it will not be the Company's client and the Company does not and will not have or accept in any circumstances whatsoever any responsibility towards any person on whose behalf the Client may act and the Client hereby acknowledges and agrees that the Client shall be solely responsible for settling all liabilities resulting from transaction(s) affected pursuant to and in accordance with the terms and conditions in connection with or on behalf of any such person.

- 8.3 The Company shall, at its absolute discretion, be entitled to solicit, accept and retain any benefit in connection with any transaction effected with any person for the Client pursuant to the terms and subject to the conditions of this Agreement, including any commissions, rebates or similar payments received in connection therewith, and rebates from standard commissions charged by brokers or other agents to their clients. The Company shall also, at its absolute discretion, be entitled to offer any benefit in connection with any transaction effected with any person for the Client pursuant to the terms and subject to the conditions of this Agreement, including any benefit relating to commissions or similar payments in connection therewith.

9 Margin Requirements and Margin Calls

- 9.1 The Client agrees to maintain such Margin and shall on demand pay or deliver such additional Margin by means of cash, securities and/or other assets in such form and amounts and within such time as may be determined by the Company to be payable by the Client or by the Company on the Client's behalf in respect of such Margin or any other payment in connection with any Options Contracts entered into on the Client's behalf under the terms of this Agreement. The amounts required by way of Margin should not be less than, but may exceed, the amounts as may be required by the Rules in respect of the Clients open positions and delivery obligations, and further Margin may be required to reflect changes in market value.
- 9.2 If the Company accepts securities by way of Margin, the Client will on request provide the Company with such authority as the Company may require under the Rules to authorize the Company to deliver such securities, directly or through an Options Exchange Participant, to SEOCH as SEOCH Collateral in respect of Exchange Traded Options Business resulting from the Client's instructions to the Company. Subject to any consent given by the Client, the Company does not have any further authority from the Client to borrow or lend Client's securities or otherwise part with possession (except to the Client or on the Client's instructions) of any of the Client's securities for any other purpose.
- 9.3 The time for payment of any Margin is of the essence and if no other time is stipulated by the Company when making a demand then the Client is required to comply with such demand before expiry of two hours from the time of making the demand (or more quickly if required by the Company to do so). The Client also agrees to pay immediately in full and on demand any amount owing with respect to any of the Company's accounts. All initial and subsequent deposits and payments for Margin and other purposes shall be made in cleared funds and in such currency and in such amounts as the Company may in its sole discretion require.
- 9.4 Without prejudice to Clause 9.1 above, the Company shall be entitled to revise Margin requirements from time to time in its absolute discretion. No previous Margin requirements shall establish a precedent and revised requirements once established shall apply to existing positions as well as to the new positions in the Contracts affected by such revision.
- 9.5 For the avoidance of doubt, failure by the Client to meet Margin calls made by the Company by the time prescribed by the Company or any other accounts payable hereunder shall give the Company the right (without prejudice to other rights) to close out open positions in respect of which any Margin calls are not met without notice to the Client and to dispose of any or all assets held for or on behalf of the Client and to apply the proceeds and any cash deposit(s) to pay the Company all outstanding balances owing to the Company. Any monies remaining after that application shall be refunded to the Client.
- 9.6 Subject to the Client Money Rules, nothing in this Agreement shall be construed as taking away or affecting any lawful claim, lien or other rights and remedies which the Company may have in respect of any money held in any bank account pursuant to Clause 13 or in respect of any money received or paid into such bank account.
- 9.7 For the avoidance of doubt, if a debit balance arises on any of the Client's Account(s), the Company shall not be, nor shall the Company be deemed to be, obliged to make available or continue to make available any financial accommodation. In particular, but without limitation, the fact that the Company permits a debit balance to arise in any Account(s) so debited shall not imply any obligation on the part of the Company to advance monies or incur any obligation on the Client's behalf on any subsequent occasion, but without prejudice to the obligations of the Client in respect of any debit balance which the Company does permit to arise.

10 Interest

- 10.1 Unless otherwise indicated, the Client hereby undertakes to pay interest on all overdue balances owing by him/her/it to the Company (after as well as before any judgment), at such rate(s), as may be specified or notified to the Client from time to time by the Company in whatever form (no matter written, oral, electronic or other forms, for instance, such rates

Any conversion from one currency into another required to be made for performing any action or step taken by the Company under this Agreement may be effected by the Company in such manner and at such time as it may in its absolute discretion decide.
- 11.2 All payments to be made by the Client to the Company in a currency other than Hong Kong Dollars shall be in freely transferable and immediately available funds clear of any taxes, charges or payments of any nature when received by the Company.

- 12.5 Except as provided in Clauses 12.6, the Company shall not, without the Client's oral or written authority or standing authority under the Client Securities Rule, deposit, transfer, lend, pledge, re-pledge or otherwise deal with any of Client's securities for any purpose.
- 12.6 The Company is authorized, pursuant to section 6(3) of the Client Securities Rules, to dispose or initiate a disposal by its associated entity of any of the Client's securities or securities collateral (and the Company shall have absolute discretion to determine which securities or securities collateral are to be disposed of) for the purpose of settling any liability owed by or on behalf of the Client to the Company, the associated entity or a third person.
- 12.7 The Company's obligations to deliver, to hold in safe custody or otherwise or to register in the Client's name, securities purchased or acquired by the Company on the Client's behalf shall be satisfied by the delivery, the holding or registration in the Client's name or the Client's nominee of securities of the same class, denomination and nominal amount as, and rank pari passu with, those originally deposited with, transferred to or acquired by the Company on the Client's behalf (subject always to any capital reorganization which may have occurred in the meantime) and the Company shall not be bound to deliver or return securities which are identical with such securities in terms of number, class denomination, nominal amount and rights attached thereto.

Nothing in this Agreement shall in any way impose on the Company any duty to inform the Client or to take any action with regards the attendance of meetings and to vote at such meetings. The Company has no duty in respect of notices, communications, proxies and other documents, relating to the securities received by the Company or to send such documents or to give any notice of the receipt of such documents to the Client. The Company has the right to charge the Client for its services in taking any action pursuant to the Client's instruction.

13 Monies in the Account(s)

FOREIGN ACCOUNT TAX COMPLIANCE ACT (“FATCA”) AND COMMON REPORTING STANDARD (“CRS”) POLICIES OF THE GROUP COMPANIES SUPPLEMENT

Under FATCA of the United States of America, financial institutions in Hong Kong are required to report certain information of their clients to tax and/or other governmental authorities and withhold on the client’s U.S. source fixed, determinable, annual or periodical income in certain circumstances.

Hong Kong has also agreed to implement the CRS under which financial institutions must report information about their clients to the Inland Revenue Department and/or other relevant authority of the Hong Kong Government.

For compliance of the regulatory requirements in relation to FATCA, the CRS and other related regulations, the Company and/or the Group Companies implemented the terms and conditions of this Supplement to govern the relevant rights and obligations between the Client and the Group Companies.

1 Privacy Waiver

- 1.1 The Client hereby irrevocably authorizes the Company and/or the Group Companies to disclose and submit such information provided by the Client, including without limitation to the personal information, to the competent regulatory or governmental authority in the relevant jurisdiction (including without limitation to U.S. Internal Revenue Service, U.S. Department of the Treasury and the Hong Kong Inland Revenue Department) for the purpose of compliance of the requirements under FATCA, the CRS and other related laws, regulations, codes and rules.
- 1.2 The Client further acknowledges that the Company and/or the Group Companies may not notify the Client such disclosure or submission as required by the applicable laws or regulations, and agrees that he/she/it will not require the Company and/or the Group Companies to make such notification to the Client before or after the disclosure or submission of the information to the relevant authorities.

2 Further Assurance for Provision of Information

- 2.1 The Client undertakes that he/she/it will promptly provide the Company and/or the Group Companies such information, including without limitation to the personal/institutional information in the Securities Account Opening Form and the relevant account opening documents designated by the Company and/or the Group Companies from time to time and the relevant tax forms completed by the Client, for the purpose of compliance of the requirements under FATCA, the CRS and other related laws, regulations, codes and rules.
- 2.2 The Client shall ensure that the information provided to the Company and/or the Group Companies under Clause 2.1 above shall always be true, complete and accurate without misleading in all material aspects.
- 2.3 The Client further undertakes that he/she/it will promptly notify the Company and/or the Group Companies whenever any information provided to the Company and/or the Group Companies under Clause 2.1 above is changed or becomes untrue, incomplete, inaccurate or misleading and provide the Company and/or the Group Companies the necessary updated information.
- 2.4 Upon the Company’s and/or the Group Companies’ request, the Client shall promptly provide the Company and/or the Group Companies such additional or substitute certificates and forms and other documentary evidences, including without limitation to the substitute tax form of expired tax forms (if any), the Client’s written nationality statement, certificate of loss of U.S. nationality and privacy waivers.
- 2.5 The Client acknowledges and agrees that failing to provide the Company and/or the Group Companies information as required under this Clause 2 will entitle the Company and/or the Group Companies to change the FATCA or CRS status of the Client’s Account(s), suspend the trading activities under the Client’s Account(s), withhold the assets in the Client’s Account(s), close the Client’s Account(s), or sell the assets in the Account(s) to produce withholdable payments at the Company’s and/or the Group Companies’ sole and absolute discretion.
- 2.6 The Company and/or the Group Companies will keep and use the Client’s personal data in compliance with the Personal Data (Privacy) Ordinance and other applicable data privacy policy.

3 Withholding Authorization

- 3.1 The Client hereby authorizes the Company and/or the Group Companies to withhold any part of or all assets in the Client’s Account(s) (in cash or other form) or sell the assets in the Account(s) to produce withholdable payments if, at the Company’s and/or the Group Companies’ sole and absolute discretion:-
 - (a) the Client do not provide the Company and/or the Group Companies with the information or documents requested in a timely manner or if any information or documents provided are not up-to-date, accurate or complete such that the Company and/or the Group Companies are unable to ensure its ongoing compliance or adherence with the requires under FATCA;

- (b) the FATCA status of the Client is identified as recalcitrant or non-participating foreign financial institutions;
- (c) there is no reliable evidence to treat the Client as exempted from withholding requirement under FATCA or other relevant regulations;
- (d) the withholding is required by competent regulatory or governmental authorities in the relevant jurisdiction; or
- (e) the withholding is otherwise necessary or appropriate for the compliance of the requirement under FATCA and other related laws, regulations, codes and rules.

4 Indemnification

4.1 The Client hereby agrees to hold the Company and/or the Group Companies and the directors, officers, employees and agents of the Company and/or the Group Companies (the "Indemnified Persons") indemnified against all losses, liabilities, costs, claims, actions, demands or expenses (including but not limited to, all reasonable costs, charges and expenses incurred in disputing or defending any of the foregoing) which the Indemnified Persons may incur or which may be made against the Indemnified Persons arising out of, or in relation to or in connection with:-

- (a) any breach or alleged breach of the terms and conditions hereunder, whether by act or omission, of the Client; and
- (b) any non-compliance of FATCA, the CRS or any other applicable laws, regulations, codes, and orders in relation to the Client and/or the Client's Account(s), except where such loss or damages arise from wilful default, fraud or gross negligence of the Indemnified Persons.

4.2 The Client undertakes to assist the Company and/or the Group Companies in any proceeding or investigation arising in any matter out of or in connection with the compliance with the requirements under FATCA, the CRS and other applicable laws, regulations, codes, and orders. In such case, the Company and/or the Group Companies will notify the Client when the Company and/or the Group Companies become aware of such proceedings, unless prohibited by applicable laws and regulations.

4.3 If any payment to be made by the Client to the Indemnified Persons under the clauses hereunder is subject to deduction or withholding tax, the sum payable by the Client in respect of which such deduction or withholding is required to be made shall be increased to the extent necessary to ensure that, after the making of the required deduction or withholding, the Indemnified Persons receive on the due date and retain (free from any liability in respect of such deduction, withholding or payment) a net sum equal to what the Indemnified Persons would have received if no such deduction, withholding or payment been made or required to be made.

4.4 The Client shall continue to be bound by the provisions of this Clause 4 despite the Client ceasing to be a holder of the Account(s) or the termination of any Account(s).

5 Incorporation with the Agreement

5.1 This Supplement shall be deemed to be incorporated as a part of the Client's Stock Options Trading Agreement in relation to the Client's Account(s) and subject to amendments made by the Group Companies from time to time at the Group Companies' sole and absolute discretion. In case of conflict or inconsistency between the Client's Stock Options Trading Agreement and this Supplement, the terms of this Supplement shall prevail.

5.2 Unless otherwise defined, capitalized terms in this Supplement shall have the same meaning as defined under the Agreement.

RISK DISCLOSURE STATEMENTS

1 Risk of Securities Trading

The prices of securities fluctuate, sometimes dramatically. The price of a security may move up or down, and may become valueless. It is as likely that losses will be incurred rather than profit made as a result of buying and selling securities.

2 Risk of Margin Trading

The risk of loss in financing a transaction by deposit of collateral is significant. The Client may sustain losses in excess of the Client's cash and any other assets deposited as collateral with the Company. Market conditions may make it impossible to execute contingent orders, such as "stop-loss" or "stop-limit" orders. The Client may be called upon at short notice to make additional Margin deposits or interest payments. If the required Margin deposits or interest payments are not made within the prescribed time, the Client's collateral may be liquidated without the Client's consent. Moreover, the Client will remain liable for any resulting deficit in the Client's Account(s) and interest charged thereon. The Client should therefore carefully consider whether such a financing arrangement is suitable in light of the Client's own financial position and investment objectives.

3 Risk of Client Assets Received or Held Outside Hong Kong

Client assets received or held by the Company outside Hong Kong are subject to the applicable laws and regulations of the relevant overseas jurisdiction which may be different from the Securities and Futures Ordinance (Cap.571) and the rules made thereunder. Consequently, such client assets may not enjoy the same protection as that conferred on client assets received or held in Hong Kong.

4 Risk of Providing an Authority to Repledge Client Securities Collateral Etc.

- 4.1 There is a risk if the Client provide the Company with an authority that allows it to apply the Client's securities or securities collateral pursuant to a securities borrowing and lending agreement, repledge the Client's securities collateral for financial accommodation or deposit the Client's securities collateral as collateral for the discharge and satisfaction of its settlement obligations and liabilities.
- 4.2 If the Client's securities or securities collateral are received or held by the Company in Hong Kong, the above arrangement is allowed only if the Client consents in writing. Moreover, unless the Client is a professional investor, the Client's authority must specify the period for which it is current and be limited to not more than 12 months. If the Client is a professional investor, these restrictions do not apply.
- 4.3 Additionally, the Client's authority may be deemed to be renewed (i.e. without the Client's written consent) if the Company issues the Client a reminder at least 14 days prior to the expiry of the authority, and the Client do not object to such deemed renewal before the expiry date of the then existing authority.
- 4.4 The Client is not required by any law to sign the authorities. But an authority may be required by the Company, for example, to facilitate margin lending to the Client or to allow the Client's securities or securities collateral to be loaned to or deposited as collateral with third parties. The Company should explain to the Client the purposes for which one of these authorities is to be used.
- 4.5 If the Client sign one of these authorities and the Client's securities or securities collateral are lent to or deposited with third parties, those third parties will have a lien or charge on the Client's securities or securities collateral. Although the Company is responsible to the Client for the Client's securities or securities collateral lent or deposited under the authority, a default by it could result in the loss of the Client's securities or securities collateral.
- 4.6 A cash account not involving securities borrowing and lending is available from the Company. If the Client do not require margin facilities or do not wish the Client's securities or securities collateral to be lent or pledged, the Client should not sign the authorities and should ask to open this type of cash account.

5 Risk of Trading Futures and Options

- 5.1 This brief statement does not disclose all of the risks and other significant aspects of trading in futures and options. In light of the risks, the Client should undertake such transactions only if the Client understand the nature of the contracts (and contractual relationships) into which the Client are entering and the extent of the Client's exposure to risk. Trading in futures and options is not suitable for many members of the public. The Client should carefully consider whether trading is appropriate for the Client in light of the Client's experience, objectives, financial resources and other relevant circumstances.

- 5.2 The risk of loss in trading futures contracts or options is substantial. In some circumstances, the Client may sustain losses in excess of the Client's initial margin funds. Placing contingent orders, such as "stop-loss" or "stop-limit" orders, will not necessarily avoid loss. Market conditions may make it impossible to execute such orders. The Client may be called upon at short notice to deposit additional margin funds. If the required funds are not provided within the prescribed time, the Client's position may be liquidated. The Client will remain liable for any resulting deficit in the Client's account. The Client should therefore study and understand futures contracts and options before the Client trade and carefully consider whether such trading is suitable in light of the Client's own financial position and investment objectives. If the Client trade options the Client should inform himself of exercise and expiration procedures and the Client's rights and obligations upon exercise or expiry.

6 Additional Risk Disclosure for Futures and Options Trading

6.1 Effect of "Leverage" or "Gearing"

Transactions in futures carry a high degree of risk. The amount of initial margin is small relative to the value of the futures contract so that transactions are "leveraged" or "geared". A relatively small market movement will have a proportionately larger impact on the funds the Client have deposited or will have to deposit: this may work against the Client as well as for the Client. The Client may sustain a total loss of initial margin funds and any additional funds deposited with the Company to maintain the Client's position. If the market moves against the Client's position or margin levels are increased, the Client may be called upon to pay substantial additional funds on short notice to maintain the Client's position. If the Client fail to comply with a request for additional funds within the time prescribed, the Client's position may be liquidated at a loss and the Client will be liable for any resulting deficit.

6.2 Risk-reducing orders or strategies

The placing of certain orders (e.g. "stop-loss" orders, or "stop-limit" orders) which are intended to limit losses to certain amounts may not be effective because market conditions may make it impossible to execute such orders. Strategies using combinations of positions, such as "spread" and "straddle" positions may be as risky as taking simple "long" or "short" positions.

Options

6.3 Variable degree of risk

- (a) Transactions in options carry a high degree of risk. Purchasers and sellers of options should familiarise themselves with the type of option (i.e. put or call) which they contemplate trading and the associated risks. The Client should calculate the extent to which the value of the options must increase for the Client's position to become profitable, taking into account the premium and all transaction costs.
- (b) The purchaser of options may offset or exercise the options or allow the options to expire. The exercise of an option results either in a cash settlement or in the purchaser acquiring or delivering the underlying interest. If the option is on a futures contract, the purchaser will acquire a futures position with associated liabilities for margin (see the section on Futures above). If the purchased options expire worthless, the Client will suffer a total loss of the Client's investment which will consist of the option premium plus transaction costs. If the Client are contemplating purchasing deep-out-of-the-money options, the Client should be aware that the chance of such options becoming profitable ordinarily is remote.
- (c) Selling ("writing" or "granting") an option generally entails considerably greater risk than purchasing options. Although the premium received by the seller is fixed, the seller may sustain a loss well in excess of that amount. The seller will be liable for additional margin to maintain the position if the market moves unfavourably. The seller will also be exposed to the risk of the purchaser exercising the option and the seller will be obligated to either settle the option in cash or to acquire or deliver the underlying interest. If the option is on a futures contract, the seller will acquire a position in a futures contract with associated liabilities for margin (see the section on Futures above). If the option is "covered" by the seller holding a corresponding position in the underlying interest or a futures contract or another option, the risk may be reduced. If the option is not covered, the risk of loss can be unlimited.
- (d) Certain exchanges in some jurisdictions permit deferred payment of the option premium, exposing the purchaser to liability for margin payments not exceeding the amount of the premium. The purchaser is still subject to the risk of losing the premium and transaction costs. When the option is exercised or expires, the purchaser is responsible for any unpaid premium outstanding at that time.

Additional Risks Common to Futures and Options

6.4 Terms and conditions of contracts

The Client should ask the Company about the terms and conditions of the specific futures or options which the Client are trading and associated obligations (e.g. the circumstances under which the Client may become obliged to make or take delivery of the underlying interest of a futures contract and, in respect of options, expiration dates and restrictions on the time for exercise). Under certain circumstances the specifications of outstanding contracts (including the exercise price of an option) may be modified by the exchange or clearing house to reflect changes in the underlying interest.

6.5 Suspension or restriction of trading and pricing relationships

Market conditions (e.g. illiquidity) and/or the operation of the rules of certain markets (e.g. the suspension of trading in any contract or contract month because of price limits or "circuit breakers") may increase the risk of loss by making it difficult or impossible to effect transactions or liquidate/offset positions. If the Client have sold options, this may increase the risk of loss.

Further, normal pricing relationships between the underlying interest and the futures, and the underlying interest and the option may not exist. This can occur when, for example, the futures contract underlying the option is subject to price limits while the option is not. The absence of an underlying reference price may make it difficult to judge fair value.

6.6 Deposited cash and property

The Client should familiarize himself with the protections given to money or other property the Client deposit for domestic and foreign transactions, particularly in the event of a firm insolvency or bankruptcy. The extent to which the Client may recover the Client's money or property may be governed by specific legislation or local rules. In some jurisdictions, property which had been specifically identifiable as the Client's own will be pro-rated in the same manner as cash for purposes of distribution in the event of a shortfall.

6.7 Commission and other charges

Before the Client begin to trade, the Client should obtain a clear explanation of all commission, fees and other charges for which the Client will be liable. These charges will affect the Client's net profit (if any) or increase the Client's loss.

6.8 Transactions in other jurisdictions

Transactions on markets in other jurisdictions, including markets formally linked to a domestic market, may expose the Client to additional risk. Such markets may be subject to regulation which may offer different or diminished investor protection. Before the Client trade the Client should enquire about any rules relevant to the Client's particular transactions. The Client's local regulatory authority will be unable to compel the enforcement of the rules of regulatory authorities or markets in other jurisdictions where the Client's transactions have been effected. The Client should ask the Company for details about the types of redress available in both the Client's home jurisdiction and other relevant jurisdictions before the Client start to trade.

6.9 Currency risks

The profit or loss in transactions in foreign currency-denominated contracts (whether they are traded in the Client's own or another jurisdiction) will be affected by fluctuations in currency rates where there is a need to convert from the currency denomination of the contract to another currency.

6.10 Trading facilities

Electronic trading facilities are supported by computer-based component systems for the order-routing, execution, matching, registration or clearing of trades. As with all facilities and systems, they are vulnerable to temporary disruption or failure. The Client's ability to recover certain losses may be subject to limits on liability imposed by the system provider, the market, the clearing house and/or participant firms. Such limits may vary: the Client should ask the Company for details in this respect.

6.11 Electronic trading

Trading on an electronic trading system may differ from trading on other electronic trading systems. If the Client undertake transactions on an electronic trading system, the Client will be exposed to risks associated with the system including the failure of hardware and software. The result of any system failure may be that the Client's order is either not executed according to the Client's instructions or is not executed at all.

6.12 Services provided through electronic means

Due to unpredictable traffic congestion and other reasons, electronic transmission may not be a reliable medium of communication. Transactions conducted via electronic means are subject to delays in transmission and receipt of the Client's instructions or other information, delays in execution or execution of the Client's instructions at prices different from those prevailing at the time the Client's instructions were given, transmission interruption or blackout. There are risks of misunderstanding or errors in communication. It is also usually not possible to cancel an instruction after it has been given.

6.13 Off-exchange transactions

In some jurisdictions, and only then in restricted circumstances, the Company is permitted to effect off-exchange transactions. The Company may be acting as the Client's counterparty to the transaction. It may be difficult or impossible to liquidate an existing position, to assess the value, to determine a fair price or to assess the exposure to risk. For these reasons, these transactions may involve increased risks. Off-exchange transactions may be less regulated or subject to a separate regulatory regime. Before the Client undertake such transactions, the Client should familiarize himself with applicable rules and attendant risks.

6.14 Risk of providing an authority to hold mail or to direct mail to third parties

If the Client provide the Company with an authority to hold mail or to direct mail to third parties, it is important for the Client to promptly collect in person all confirmations and statements of the Client's Account and review them in detail to ensure that any anomalies or mistakes can be detected in a timely fashion.

6.15 External position transfer arrangement for the Client Offset Claim Account ("COCA") in DCASS under the Company's default situation

As offset may be available between the positions pairs belonging to different clients maintained in the COCA, any request for external transfer of positions from the COCA under the Company's default situation must be for ALL but not part of the positions. As a result, in a default scenario, no position maintained in the COCA could be externally transferred to another company if one or more clients with positions in COCA do not wish to transfer out their positions for whatever reasons.
